

Our station has NEVER had a complaint filed based on obscene, indecent, or profane broadcast programming. Why would you consider punishing our radio station for what another station has done?

Suggestion: Why not fine the stations which have had these types of complaints. Why not make it so unbearable that other stations would not even consider crossing the line? Please don't punish everyone for what a few have done!

Thank you!